

GO WILD IN THE COUNTRY

J.M. Weston heads out of London, finding inspiration in country pursuits and sports for a new capsule collection. Their super-smart golf tip derby shoes are influenced by matters equestrian and are available in camel, dark brown and green, £575. jmweston.com

STORM WARNING

Storm Watches is celebrating its 25th anniversary with a new, futuristic Hydroxis design, which includes a dual time piece and is available in black, silver, slate or brown. From £169.99. stormwatches.com

BAGS OF AUTHENTICITY

They may have a new logo and website, where you can log on to design your own bespoke bag, but Chapman still likes doing things the traditional, hand-crafted way in their factory in Carlisle, Cumbria. From £125. chapmanbags.com

Well Groomed

Matt Thomas is rugged and rural

NEED FOR TWEED

Nick Holland of Holland Esquire continues to both respect and playfully subvert tailoring tradition. His new tweed collection is inspired by the English countryside and we think this coat is a particular winner, £580. hollandesquire.com

CZECH THIS OUT

The luxurious blend of herbal and essential oils in this bathing oil come with a non-greasy alcohol-free formula that has been developed to help rejuvenate the texture of the skin, while relaxing both mind and body. No.88 Moisturising Body and Bathing Oil, £65 for 50ml. czechamdspeake.com

ASK MRS R ...

No, we're not talking Madonna here. Rather, Mrs Ritchie, a useful online skin consultancy where you can confidentially discuss any particular skin problems and obtain potent skincare remedies, including exclusive access to highly effective, cosmoceutical grade, Australian brand Synergie. Five day intro kit, £97. mrs-ritchie.com

MURANO MANDLES

Artisans from the magical island of Murano have collaborated with Acqua di Parma to produce individually hand-blown glass jars containing three equally magnificent candles – Linden, Mahogany and Tonka – all of which are masculine enough to merit desk-space, £90. harrods.com